Which case?	Case number 5, 26H-ECL-GA-CASE4A, Case 5: Bylaw Amendment
What it says now	§12.4 CBO. The CBO is responsible for the Association's economy, cf. §15. This includes financial planning, bookkeeping, budget control, auditing, insurance and financial risk management. The CBO further has responsibility for sponsor relations, partnership agreements, branding and external communication, including content and maintenance of the Association's digital platforms.
What I want it to say	Split the CBO role into two separate roles, CFO and CMO, at the C-suite's discretion. §12.x CFO. The CFO is responsible for the Association's economy, cf. §15. This includes financial planning, bookkeeping, budget control, auditing, insurance and financial risk management. §12.x CMO. The CMO is responsible for sponsor relations, partnership agreements, branding and external communication, including content and maintenance of the Association's digital platforms. The C-suite may facilitate this change by updating all other parts of the bylaws that mention the CBO to refer to either the CFO or the CMO, as appropriate.
